

Towards a New Ethical Imagination

February 10-11, 2012, University of Turku, Finland

Friday, February 10 (Lecture Room PUB5)

09.00 Juha Räikkä: Opening Words

09.15 Markku Oksanen: Global Warming, Ethics and Cultural Criticism

10.15 Sanna Joronen: Geo-Engineering - A Survival Kit for Climate Emergency

11.00 Coffee / Tea

11.15 Odin Lysaker: The Power of Recognition

12.00 Jacob Dahl Rendtorff: Recognition, Freedom and the Rule of Law.

12.45 Lunch

14.00 Arvi Särkelä: Where Categorizations of Self and Others Meet

14.45 Arto Laitinen: Recognition between Ricoeur and Honneth

15.30 Coffee / Tea

15.45 Carl-Göran Heidegren: Core Values and Immanent Critique in Honneth and Myrdal

16.30 Øjvind Larsen: Societal Ethics and Sittlichkeit: Hegel, Habermas and Honneth

17.15 End

Saturday, February 11 (Lecture Room PUB5)

09.00 Yvonne Denier: What Does Justice in Health Care Mean? Philosophical Reflections and Ethical Implications

10.15 Michael Carleheden: Three Concepts of Liberty

11.00 Dividing into two groups

Group A (Seminar room 150)

11.15 Daniel Weyermann: Can Public Reason Liberals Account for the Protection of the Environment?

12.00 Jonas M. Nordli Sörensen, Sustainability and to Experience Nature

12.45 Lunch

14.00 Sari Roman-Lagerspetz: Dialectics of Democracy

14.45 Helen Lindberg: Power and Paradox – A Reluctant Democratic View

15.30 Helena Siipi: Authenticity of Food

End 16.15

Group B (Lecture Room PUB5)

11.15 Asger Sørensen: TBA

12.00 Rosa Rantanen: The desirability of considerable human life extension

12.45 Lunch

14.00 Åke Nilsén: Ethics in Adventure Sports

14.45 Agnieszka Piotrowska: Recognition in Avatar and District 9

End 15.30

Funded by: The Nordic Summer University \(NSU\)